“Being Cuban means being a [redacted] person who has music in their blood, [redacted] mixture of so many great things. [redacted]”